Food Distribution to MTRSD Families

The Mary Lyon Foundation, in partnership with the Mohawk Trail Regional School District, is organizing efforts to provide groceries to district families during the mandated school closure. This program will begin later this week. To participate please follow the instructions below:

- To register, please contact Sue Mitchell, District Nurse Leader
- Families will need to register each week in order to receive groceries
- Food distribution will occur at Buckland-Shelburne Elementary each Friday from 4:PM-7PM
- Grocery bags will be packed with essential dry staples such as peanut butter and jelly, spaghetti, fresh food, and milk as available. Bags will be delivered in a “grab and go” style right to your car (pull up in the circle in front of the school).

TO REGISTER:

Contact Sue Mitchell, smitchell@mtrsd.org or (413) 522-9618

Please provide: Family Name / Town Residence / Number of members in the household. Please designate if there are any food allergies.

How You Can Help:

We greatly appreciate the incredible support from our community! We hope you understand, at this time, due to constraints regarding public access to our schools, community volunteers are unable to assist with the distribution process. However, in order to keep our families fed, if you would still like to contribute, the Mary Lyon Foundation is accepting donations! You can mail your check, made payable to the Mary Lyon Foundation to:

Mary Lyon Foundation

PO Box 184

Shelburne Falls, MA 01370

In the check memo, please indicate: Student Assistance Program

You may also make an online gift via the foundation's website at www.marylyonfoundation.org. Simply click the “Make a Donation” button found at the top of the page.
